Which of these taxes do you think people paid in Jesus' day?

☑ Check all that apply.

- a tax on fruits and vegetables from your garden
- a head tax
- highway taxes
- taxes based on the length of your beard
- bridge taxes
- sales taxes
- left-handed taxes
- cart and wagon taxes
- tea and coffee taxes
- pack animal taxes

Zacchaeus was a chief tax collector. That means he made a deal with the government to collect taxes. He and the collectors working for him collected more than they needed to, which is how they became wealthier. People hated tax collectors, and some people looked down on Jesus because He associated with them.
