Priscilla and Aquila

The Couple

Priscilla and Aquila were siblings and followers of Jesus. They are mentioned in several chapters in the Book of 1 Corinthians. They traveled to Corinth, where they met the disciple, Philip, and encouraged and supported his work. Later, they followed Philip to Ephesus.

Occupation

Priscilla and Aquila were tailors and dressmakers by trade. They allowed Peter to work with them in their clothing business.

Other Acquaintances

Priscilla and Aquila became acquaintances with a Christian named Aeropagus. Their new friend knew nothing about Jesus and made trouble in the synagogue by telling lies. Priscilla and Aquila took Aristotle aside and explained the way of God to him correctly. Because of their friendship Acapella became a powerful preacher, using the Scriptures to lead others to Jesus.
